DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-21 and 24-29 are allowed. These claims have been renumbered as claims 1-27.
2. Claims 22 and 23 have been cancelled.

Drawings

3. The drawings filed on April 12, 2004 are accepted by the Examiner.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art of record does not render obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of applicant's invention nor anticipate the combination of claimed elements including "initiating a translation request on one of a plurality of client systems, the translation request being initiated on a periodic basis or upon detection of a change in source data on one or more of the client systems, and the translation request including the source data to be translated from the first format into the one or more translated formats and configuration data defining each type of translation to be performed on the source data" and "communicating a return translation request to the client system, the return translation request including the target data in the corresponding translated format; and storing the target data in a designated output file in the client system" as recited in independent claim 1 and similarly recited in independent claims 7, 12, and 17.

As per claim 24, the prior art of record does not render obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of applicant's invention nor anticipate the combination of claimed elements including "at least one translation engine, each translation engine operable to translate data in a first format to data in a corresponding translated format" and similarly recited in independent claim 28.

The remaining claims, 2-6, 8-11, 13-16, 18-21, 25-27, and 29, are dependent claims, thus these claims are patently distinct over the art of record for at least the above reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
